

AESOP AWARD COMMITTEES GUIDELINES

AESOP Council of Representatives Resolution 12th March 2015, Madrid

1. After an open call, the Council elects the Chair of an Award Committee. The term of office of the Chair shall be of 5 years.
2. The Chair of the Committee proposes the members of the committee for the approval of the Executive Committee.
3. A minimum of 5 members of each Committee is required. Amongst them, the Chair appoints a vice-chair, to help and/or substitute the chair.
4. The term of office of the members of the Committee shall be of 5 years. Half of the members of the Committee shall change after at least 3 years of the Chair's terms of office.

On the basis of the article 16.e of the AESOP Charter, the Chairs of the Award Committees are AESOP Officials and therefore members of the Council of Representatives.
